DISPATCH

5. 0 3 1 7

Chief, Task Force 1

Chief of Division, JMWAVE

Operational / YROSE / RUBESK

[illegible]

ACTION REQUIRED: None; FYI

1. Subject was removed from SAC on 1 September 1950 and taken to a safe site where he was debriefed for four hours. The purpose of the debriefing was to ascertain the subject's contacts in Cuba and determine if he had any relationship with the G-2 or any other Security organization.

2. During the course of the debriefing the subject appeared to be willing to cooperate and there were no indications of an attempt of deception. However, it is felt that the subject is a sharp operator, an opportunist and an individual motivated by his wife. He is very verbose, loud and attempts to hold the floor at all times.

3. CRELLANA claims that he had no relationship with the Cuban G-2, that he knew Fausto VALDELL, Chief of the G-2, and Manuel FERRERO, Deputy Chief of the G-2, but that he never conducted any business with them. He stated that he knew many G-2 agents by sight but never knew their names. He is of the opinion that all members of the G-2 are Communists and individuals of very low caliber.

4. Subject was granted asylum in the Ukrainian Republic on 06.08.1992, which has obtained temporary in the Uruguayan Embassy because he was in danger of being picked up by the Cuban Security Services. He claims that in May, 1961 he was engaged in the transportation of material and personnel from Habana to the "Segundo Frente" in the Occidental mountains, in the Province of Santa Clara. At that time he was working with [redacted] by the Security Service. "Frontline" denounced the subject as a traitor. In view of the subject's past and present activities, he is considered a traitor.

6. "FRONTLINE" admitted that during the last year he was engaged in negotiations for the purchase of arms from Cuban contacts. That during the month of September, 1961, he was in Los Angeles, California where he traveled to the home of a purveyor of arms from a Cuban contact. He said that he did not purchase the arms from the contact but that he did make arrangements for the contact to deliver these arms from the contact. It is noted that the subject was engaged in other criminal activities which he did not mention. This section is based on the information provided in the attached Personal History statement regarding his travel and the short-term jobs he held in the past.

7. Subject also admitted that he was arrested on 26 April 1961 by the OSI because of his connection with a group engaged in the purchase and sale of arms. According to the subject, he was a member of a group which was engaged in the purchase of arms from Cuban contacts. He endeavored to take out of the country. One of the group's associates, Vicente Benito "MUEL" Hernandez and Juan "RODRIGUEZ" Riera, were arrested by the Security Service. Allegedly, "MUEL" and "RODRIGUEZ" informed the Security Service that the subject knew the whereabouts of RAMON. Subject stated that he knew RAMON and after being held for four days he was released by "MUEL" and "RODRIGUEZ", who were released a few days before the release of Subject.

8. Subject denies any association with the Communist Party, C-2 or any other Security Service. He claims to be a laborer and is willing to do anything in his power to combat Communism and liberate Cuba. Subject is an informant of the Security Service and was returned to OSI for information. Subject does not contemplate any future contact with the Security Service.
